PHILADA. PRESBYTERY, NORTH.

Annual Spring Session-Proceedings Tuesday Evening and Wednesday. Special Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph.

NORRISTOWN, April 19. The Philadelphia Presbytery, North, convened in regular spring session at this place on Tuesday evening, as already announced in your columns.

After a sermon by the Moderator of the last session, Rev. Thomas Murphy, the presbytery was organized for regular business. The Rev. J. H. M. Knox, of Germantown, was elected Moderator. Rev. Joseph Beggs occupied the position of Stated Clerk, and the Rev. M. H. Calkins and Elder Peter E. Hope were elected temporary clerks. The reading of accumulated minutes occupied the remainder of the evening, when the session adjourned until the following gorning.

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the presbytery again convened, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

Rev. G. H. Hammer, at his own request, was dismissed to the Presbytery of Lehigh. The following delegates to the General Assembly, meeting next month at Chicago, were elected:—M. B. Grier, D. D., and Rev. Thomas Murphy. Alternates—Revs. E. P. Cowan and A. V. N. Schenck. Elders—Messrs. J. Ralston and Hatfield. Alternates—Messrs. Bodine and

An examination, in accordance with constitu-tional usage, of Mr. Archibald McCullagh, li-centiate of the Presbytery of New York, and Mr. John Peacock, licentiate of Central Presbytery, with a view to ordination, was proceeded with. The examination was sustained. Mr. McCullagh having accepted a call to the Second Presbyterian Church of Germantown, Wednesday, May 3, was appointed for his ordination and in-stallation; and Mr. Peacock having accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church of Holmesburg, April 28 was fixed as the time of his ordination and installation A licentiate from the M. E. Church, Mr. Henry F. Mason, was taken under the care of presbytery.

An address upon the subject of Ministerial Education was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Spear.
Afternoon Session.—The Rev. C. H. Ewing was, at his own request, dismissed to the Presbytery of Chester.

On motion, it was resolved that hereafter the two Presbyterian churches at Neshaminy, Bucks county, be known in presbytery as the First and Second Churches of Neshaminy, in accordance to age.

4 o'clock P. M. was appointed as the hour for the children's meeting. The Sabbath-schools were out in force, and rendered most delightful music. Addresses were delivered by Revs. E. P. Cowan and W. A. Jenks.

A resolution was adopted that the presbytery designate Bristol, Pennsylvania, as the place for the fall stated meeting, the first Tuesday in EVENING SESSION .- Devotional exercises. inclusive of the administration of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, took place. The Moderator presided, and a large congregation were in attendance. After being dismissed the Pres-bytery at 9 P. M. resumed business, discussing a resolution with reference to certain restrictions pertaining to licentiates. A committee of five was appointed to report.

The Second Presbyterian Church, Norristown, was granted leave to supply its pulpit for six

The resolution passed at the afternoon session, with reference to the Neshaminy churches was rescinded, and instead the respective names of Warwick and Warminster were attached as originally designed to distinguish these two churches located in Bucks county. Adjourned to this morning at 9 o'clock.

WHAT MEANING HAS "H. T. H."?

The Mystery Cleared Up at Last-It Means How's This for High!

The new drug store which Dr. Helmbold has established in Gilsey's Hotel, corner of Broadway and Twenty-ninth street, was formally opened to the gaze of an admiring public on Saturday evening last, and since that time thousands of persons have visited it and inspected its marvellous beauties. One can readily imagine, as he surveys the glittering and gorgeous scene, that he is in the grand chamber of Aladdin's palace. The bright sheen of the glass jars on either side reflects back the brilliancy of the interior. But what do those jars contain? To paraphrase a well-known couplet,

"Beauty, beauty, everywhere, But there's nothing good to drink." (Unless the Doctor keeps it somewhere in the rear out of sight.) The height of the ceiling, which is frescoed in the Pompeiian style, is twenty feet. Hanging from the ceiling are three immense chandeliers, ten feet long, manufactured expressly for Dr. Helmbold, with his monogram, "H. T. H.," engraved on the pendant. Of course, it's got to be understood that these initials mean, "How's This for High?" as well as standing for Henry T. Helmbold. Cut in these beautiful crystals are exquisite little hunting scenes, typical of the brave little doctor's love of manly sports. The front of the store looking on Twenty-ninth street is almost wholly of glass. The counters, which extend the whole length of the store, on both sides, are of black walnut, carved in original designs after Dr. Helmbold's own drawings. The top of the counters are covered with wide slabs of polished Italian marble. Surrounding the room are numbers of bronze figures representing the mythological era of the Greeks. Against the wall on all sides are French mirrors reaching from floor to ceiling, with gilt frames, carved in most exquisite style. On the top of their pediments are gilt mortars, suggestive of the apothecary's art.

To appreciate the beauty of this magnificent establishment, one must go and see for himself.

AT THE WALNUT the performance this evening will consist of the pantomime of The Three Hunchbacks. On Monday next Miss Ella Burns will appear in Tom Taylor's drama of 'Twixt Axe and Crown.

To-merrow evening Mrs. E. N. Thayer will have a benefit, when Sheridan's comedy of The Rivals and Craig's burlesque of Barbe Bleue will be given. Mrs. Thayer is one of the best as well as one of the oldest actresses upon the American stage. She is a thorough artist, and has a firm hold upon the regards of the playgoers of Philadelphia, who will undoubtedly be glad to testify to their appreciation of her great merits by filling the house to overflowing to-morrow evening. house to overflowing to-morrow evening.

as "St. Pierre." To-morrow evening Mrs. E. Edward Lewis will have a benefit, when Mr. Davenport will appear in his great role of "Othello," supported by Mr. Thorne as "Iago," Miss Glover as "Desdamona," and Mrs. Davenport as "Emilia." This is a very strong cast, and a fine performance

AT THE AMERICAN a variety of attractions will be presented this evening. To-morrow will be presented this evening. To-morrow there will be a family night, when a fine bill will be offered for the delectation of ladies, children, and family parties. Miss kate Fisher will appear in the celebrated role of "Mazeppa," and with her "fiery untamed steed," which bears the appropriate name of "Wonder," she will represent the flight of the Polish hero across the desert wastes and mountains in a manner calculated to thrill the hearts of the beholders. In addition to this performance there will be a funny pantomime, a number of beautiful ballets, Ethiopian burlesques, Dutch comedy, comic and sentimental vocalism, and a great variety of other timental vocalism, and a great variety of other features calculated to rivet the attention of the andience. By setting apart an evening in the week for family parties Mr. Fox has made an agreeable and popular innovation, and the experiment may be considered a brilliant success; for every Friday evening the theatre is crowded by members of the fair sex who have hitherte considered themselves excluded from variety entertainments. The performances are interesting, and as there is always something fresh being presented, they appeal to the tastes of those who merely wish to be amused for an hour or two, but who are dubious about the entertainment to be gained from five acts of tragedy.

On Saturday there will be a family matinee.

AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDING Dr. Corry's diorama of "Ireland in Light and Shade," with its accompaniment of songs, dances, and character sketches, will be exhibited this evening. This is a very attractive exhibition, and well worthy of the liberal patronage of the public. The pictures are really beautiful works of art, and the minstreis and vocalists who appear are excellent artists.

AT THE ALHAMBRA, Seventh street, below Arch, a miscellaneous programme will be pre-sented this evening. AT THE MUSEUM, Ninth and Arch streets, Mr. Lewis Baker will personate "Jesse Rural," in Old Heads and Young Hearts, this evening.

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE the testimonial benefit to Mr. E. N. Slocum will come off this evening, and those who wish to obtain seats should be seen to be a seat of the seats of the obtain seats should go early. An unusually attractive bill will be presented.

THE HANDEL AND HAYDN SOCIETY will give a grand miscellaneous concert at Musical Fund Hall te-morrow evening.

CITY NOTICES.

GENUINE AND ORIGINAL MILTON GOLD JEWELRY COMPANY .- We would again invite attention to the superb display of bijouterie at No. 1922 Chesnut street, under the auspices of the original Milton Gold Jewelry Company. A large invoice of Miltongold jewels was received from England last week and are now ready for inspection, and the company would especially call the attention of our ladies to the new styles offered, which are fac-similes of the latest Parisian fashions. The original Milton Gold Jewelry Company, who have an immense capital invested in this enterprise, guarantee that their goods will wear as well as those made of virgin gold; that they will keep their color, and that they cannot be detected from the finest gold by any jeweller in the world except by weight. The success of the genuine Milton Gold Jewelry Company, who adopted in the outset and still maintain the $1 system, has been marvellous. The establishment of this enterprise by the great Milton Gold Jewelry Company is pre-eminently characteristic of the goaheadativeness of the nineteenth century; and the Board of Managers, who have the handling of the immense capital invested, have certainly displayed their greatest sagacity in putting the price at $1, thereby bringing their goods within the range of the poor. Since the opening of the company's salesrooms, three weeks ago last Monday, all New York and Philadelphia, as we have before remarked, have been seized with the Milton Gold fever. Many of our fashionable people have already bought heavily, and there is no doubt but that the pure Milton Gold Jewelry will be all the rage during the coming summer, and will be extensively worn at all the noted watering places. We reiterate that the genuine English Milton Gold Company is composed of live men who are determined to push their enterprise against all opposition. A day or two ago the company placed in their show-window two superb pans of Milton Gold, which have attracted general attention from the passers-by. We are greatly delighted at chronicling the success of this great enterprise, and would in most perfect good faith advise our numerous friends, more particularly those of the gentler sex, to visit this great emporium of artistic production. The price-$1 for each articleis certainly within the reach of all. Again we commend our friends to inspect the goods of the GENU-INE MILTON GOLD JEWELRY COMPANY, at No. 1022
